

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Arrival and Departure - Campers should plan to arrive between 3:00 PM and 4:00 PM on the first day of camp for on-site check-in and cabin assignments unless otherwise directed. Do not arrive earlier since your application will not be processed before 3:00 PM. Dinner will be the first meal served. Campers should be picked up by 10:00 AM on the last day of camp. Parents should arrive on time. If someone other than a family member is transporting a camper, please note this on the registration form or inform the Executive Director upon arrival at camp.

Scholarships - Every camper who wants to attend Living Waters should have the opportunity to do so. Many churches offer assistance with camp fees. Living Waters has limited funds available in the form of camper-ships. Please contact Living Waters office for more information.

Grade - The “grade” listed for summer camps refer to the grade a camper will complete by June 2014, not the level he/she will enter in the fall.

Group Photos - Every campers will be given a free 5 x 7 group photo. If you would like an 8 x 10 photo for $ 5.00 instead please let the staff know at registration.

Health Form - Current health forms for all campers and staff are required every year. A physical by a licensed professional is only required for new campers, those with special needs or if the camper had a significant health change since the last form submitted. Health forms will be sent once the registration form is received. ALL forms MUST BE submitted at least two weeks prior to camp attendance.

Medical Information - All camps have a registered nurse on duty at all times. All medication, both prescription and nonprescription, must be given to the camp nurse during on-site check in at camp. All medications must be in the original containers from the camper’s pharmacist or the nurse cannot administer it. The camp nurse needs this information in the event of illness or injury. Parents will be notified if there are any medical concerns or emergencies.

Participation - All campers are expected to participate in the full schedule of camp activities. All youth campers will remain on-site or under supervision through-out their entire stay. Visitors to campers are discouraged during a camping session. Email messages are allowed at lvngwtrs@embarqmail.com.

Prohibited Items - Illegal drugs, alcoholic beverages, pets and firearms are prohibited at camp at all times. If a camper is found with any of these items, their parents will be called and they will be sent home immediately. Radios, electronic games and food, brought from home, are also prohibited at camp. If campers bring these items, the items will be collected and stored for the week. iPods and other personal music devices are permitted at the campers risk. Living Waters assumes no responsibility for these items. Use is permitted when a camper is on free time only. Make sure all campers understand this policy! Smoking is strongly discouraged for all people at Living Waters. Cell Phones are a distraction and therefore prohibited at camp. If a camper has a cell phone, it will be placed in the camp office until the end of the camper’s session.

Refund Policy - If a camper is forced to cancel, payment will be refunded if the cancellation is received at least 10 days prior to the first day of camp unless there is a medical emergency or family crisis. Cancellations received after 10 days are not eligible for a refund.

Registration and Payment Policies - Deadline for registration is two weeks prior to the first day of an event. A $25.00 processing fee will be added to last minute registrations. Please use a separate registration form for each camper. If a camper is attending more than one event, please fill out a separate registration form for each camp. Registrations must be received by May 17, 2014 to qualify for the free T-shirt. If more than one camper is registering from the same family, there is a $10.00 discount for each registration. You may pay online using a debit or credit card through PayPal. Go to the Event Schedule section of our website. Completed registration forms and checks made payable to “Living Waters” should be sent to:
